

T&Cs:

1. This competition is jointly organised and promoted by the University of West England (Bristol) and Waterwise who retain the right to amend any competition details at any time.
2. There is no charge for entries.
3. Prizes will be as stated, no cash alternative is available. In the event of a prize or prizes being unavailable, an equivalent alternative will be determined by the judges.
4. By entering this competition entrants accept these terms and conditions, as well as the entry conditions, and those communicated in any other way by the organisers.
5. The competition is open to all young people in the age groups 5-9 and 10-13, resident in and / or at school in the United Kingdom, i.e. England, Northern Ireland, Scotland, and Wales. Also open to the same age groups via out of school groups (ie Beavers, Rainbows, holiday clubs etc) and as individuals.
6. Entries open from 9am on May 1st and close at midnight on May 28th.
7. Entries are welcomed from individuals who met the criteria, as well as from groups (ie schools, classes, Beavers, Rainbows, holiday clubs etc).
8. Entries must be made via the Waterwise website, using the link given in the instructions to qualify. Written entries must be submitted as a PDF; illustrative entries & photos of models as .jpg files; videos entries as .mp4 files, maximum size 500 MB and no more than 2 minutes long. Multiple entries (for instance from a school class or activity group) are welcomed but must be sent in batches so as not to exceed the file size limit of 1GB and each file cannot be bigger than 100 MB. No physical entries should be submitted, if they are the organisers are not able to accept or return them.
9. By entering this competition entrants and their parent / guardian / school / group organiser agree that the entry can be shared by the organiser, promoters, designated partners and media, digitally and / or electronically. Entrants grant to the organisers and competition partners a non-exclusive licence to use and publish their entry, first name, name of the school or activity group, and town/village/city where they live in any media for the purpose of announcing the winner without any fee being paid.
10. Entries will be displayed on the Waterwise web page.
11. Web and email entrants are required to follow the instructions on the website as indicated in the competition information. Entrants will receive a message confirming entry to the competition. Web and email entrants will be required to supply their name, and/or email address and/or a contact telephone number and/or any other details. This must be done by a parent / guardian (aged over 18), a schoolteacher or young people's group organiser. Those submitting the entries must have the permission of the entrant's parent / guardian.
12. Data protection – other than for the purposes detailed no information will be shared in accordance with GDPR compliance.
13. Neither the organisers, nor their partners, nor any other party or organisation involved in the management, promotion, or administration of the competition or its entry routes or donation of prizes or their agents or subsidiaries involved in the competition will accept responsibility or liability for any error, omission, interruption, deletion, defect, delay in operation or transmission, communications line failure, theft, destruction, alteration of, or unauthorised access to entries, or entries lost or delayed whether or not arising during operation or transmission as a result of server functions (including but not limited to security functions by software used by Incisive Media or any third party), virus, bugs, or other causes outside its control.
14. Winners will be notified via the contact details submitted with their entry, by mid July 2021, unless otherwise notified via updates to these Terms & Conditions published on the competition page on the Waterwise and DRY websites.
15. The judges' decision is final and no correspondence / dialogue will be entered into.